DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to the amendment and remarks received on February 25, 2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the two half-bodies" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakamura (USPN 5,497,931).

In reference to claims 1, 2, 4 and 6, Nakamura discloses a stapler comprising: a main body 11, defined by a pair of parallel plate 11a, which includes a seat 102 for a row 100 of staples which are urged by a pusher 119 toward an ejection head 104 (figure 3), wherein a striker 36 can run in a direction substantially perpendicular to the feed direction of the row of staples in the seat 102, characterized in that a mobile plate 54 having a notch (figure 1) is mechanically connected to a slider 73 via pin 55, wherein the slider 73 protrudes outside the main body 11 so that by moving the slider 73 the mobile plate 54 can slide perpendicular to the feed direction of the row of staples, in the main body 11 between a portion 105 of the ejection head 104 and the striker 36 (column 9 lines 32-55).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakamura (USPN 5,497,931) in view of Oide (USPN 4,556,161).

With respect to claims 11, Nakamura discloses stapler comprising a striker and mobile plate, but does not disclose the dimensions of the striker and mobile plate. Oide teaches a stapler having a striker (9) that is slidable with respect to a seat (3) of a main body of the stapler. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the striker to have the claimed thickness of .8 mm and a width of 10-12 mm, since column 3 line 66 – column 4 line 33 of Oide suggests that it is well known in the art to correspond the thickness and width of a striker to the largest thickness and width of staples to be driven from the stapler.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claim 3, 7-10 and 13-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

10. Claims 17 and 18 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejection of claim 1 in view of Deng have been considered and deemed persuasive, but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection necessitated by Applicant's amendment(s).

While Examiner has applied Nakamura to rejection Applicant's invention in previous actions of record, upon reconsideration of Nakamura, Examiner has applied an alternative interpretation of Nakamura.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Refer to attachment for notice of references cited and recommended for consideration based on their disclosure of limitations related to the claimed invention.
